THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

6 Woka keeps the spotlight on Wiener Werkstätte and early Modernist lighting by traditionally handcrafting reproductions of such designs. Its latest offerings include the 'Stoclet Palais' pendant (£4,885 approx), created by Josef Hoffmann in 1907 for the great hall at the eponymous Brussels palace, and the 'Lift' floor lamp with adjustable shade (£1,735), the Viennese manufacturer's own 1928 creation. 7 Like the phase of the moon his 'Waxing Gibbous' mirror (shown; £5,000) is named after, Michael Anastassiades's business just keeps on getting bigger. The native Cypriot has worked with some of the most respected architects and interior designers, boasts creations in the permanent collections of the V&A and Moma, and this October opens a London shop (with a 'soft opening' during the London Design Festival, 17-23 September). There he will showcase his new looking-glasses. Ring 020 7928 7527, or visit michaelanastassiades.com.

8 'Ageless design, traditional production' are the attributes Portuguese upholsterer Munna claims for its creations, which include this Art Deco-inspired 'Josephine' sofa, £4,070. Ring 00 35 1 220 165782, or visit munnadesign.com.

9 Former antique dealer Adam Bray says he 'now spends most of his time decorating houses'. He also puts in the hours developing products - his newest is 'Greville' mohair velvet (£288 per m), available in 11 colours and 12 gaufrage patterns. Ring Tissus d'Hélène on 020 7352 9977, or visit tissusdhelene.co.uk.

10 A new chapter has begun for barrister bookcases, first designed in the 19th century by Globe-Wernicke. Laura Ashley has used their over-and-under glass doors for its 'Garratt' library storage, which consists of uniform-sized units that - also like the originals - can be stacked in any configuration. Available in three finishes; £1,117 (£117 for plinth and top, £250 per box). Ring 0871 983 5999, or visit lauraashley.com. ▷
